

Medical Humanities

December 2000 Volume 26 Number 2

Editorial: Conceptions of medical humanities	David Greaves, Martyn Evans	65
Don't cry for us Argentinians: two decades of teaching medical humanities	Leopoldo E Acuña	66
Research and Evaluation of the Exeter Health Care Arts Project	Peter Scher and Peter Senior	71
Writing well: health and the power to make images	Mark Robinson	79
Kafka's uncle: scenes from a world of trust infected by suspicion	Iain Bamforth	85
Narrative in psychiatry and psychotherapy: the evidence?	Jeremy Holmes	92
Working with the metaphor of life and death	Phil Barker	97
Editorial: Education and debate: A sense of landscape	Deborah Kirklin and Richard Meakin	103
Education and debate: A Necessary Inhumanity?	Ruth Richardson	104
Opening the word hoard: Five poems by Helen Drucquer and a story by Frederick Nenner	Edited by Gillie Bolton	107
Medicine through the novel: A personal response to: Zen and the Art of Motorcycle Maintenance by Robert Pirsig	James Willis	110
News and notes		70, 102, 109

December 2000

Volume 26 Number 2

Medical HUMANITIES

Edition of the Journal of Medical Ethics

26

Vol 26 No 2 Pages 65-112

JOURNAL OF MEDICAL ETHICS MEDICAL HUMANITIES EDITOR

December 2000

culture ARTS/SCIENCE
PHILOSOPHY
Medicine gaze
Telos human NARRATIVE

BMJ
Publishing
Group